IMPORTANT INFORMATION

- This Form (E-1) must be filed by residents and non-residents of the city, whenever Earnings Tax has not been totally withheld from salaries, wages, tips or other compensation as reported on Form(s) W-2, less any income derived from stock options (stock not represented on Form(s) W-2 will require documentation from employer). If you are self-employed or have 1099-MISC income, you must use Earnings Tax Form E-234.
- Form E-1R must be used to request a refund (beginning tax year 2010).
- Joint Returns are not allowed.
- A resident is subject to Earnings Tax on gross income, (less any income derived from stock options) regardless of where earned. Military Active Duty and Reserve pay are also subject to the Earnings Tax.
- Annual leave, sick leave, and/or separation pay of any person who terminates or is separated from a place of employment located within the City of St. Louis is taxable in the year received, regardless of when or where earned, and regardless of where recipient lives.
- Return must be filed on or before April 15th. No extension allowed.
- Penalty and Interest are due after April 15th. Tax must be paid when the return is filed.
- PENALTY AND INTEREST: All taxes not paid when due will be subject to a penalty of 5% of the amount of tax for each month, or fraction thereof (not to exceed 25%) plus interest at the rate of 1% per month or fraction thereof (12% per year), until tax is paid.
- This return is to be filed with Gregory F.X. Daly, Collector of Revenue, Earnings Tax Dept., 410 City Hall, 1200 Market St., St. Louis, MO 63103-2841, on or before April 15th of the following year.

NON-RESIDENCY DEDUCTION INSTRUCTIONS

- A non-resident is subject to Earnings Tax on their gross income earned within the City of St. Louis. Non-residents who work both inside and outside the city can only make a deduction of salary based on whole days worked out of the city (if you start and/or finish your work day in the city you are not allowed to use that day as worked out of the city). Vacation, Sick, and Holidays are not allowed as a deduction.
- All claims for non-residency deductions must be supported by a letter, from your employer, stating the total whole days worked outside the city during the year. This letter must be on official letterhead and signed by your employer. A deduction for days worked out of the city will not be allowed if required documentation is not submitted with the return.
- Residents who move into the city during the year may use this non-residency deduction formula to calculate their deduction for wages earned outside the city, prior to residency. A copy of mortgage deed or lease is required for verification of dates moved in or out of the City of St. Louis. A deduction for days lived outside the city will not be allowed if required documentation is not provided.
